"For the next part of our carol-service, Nigel, the verger's nephew will play his interpretation of Silent Night..."

Advent is well known as a time of preparation, but we are well versed in this season now. We all have our traditions; making the cake by this date, sending cards and gifts by that date, putting the tree and lights up, we may have asked people for a list of gift ideas, we have written family, friends and work nights out in the calendar. We start to plan that special meal and even what we are going to do for New Year's Eve.

By my time of life Advent is a well-oiled machine. The services have been in the diary since the Summer and by Advent Sunday, I have known what I was doing every day for the whole of December for many years. It's a very busy time but predictable as clockwork.

This year, however, is different. The services are in the diary but I stand removed from them. There is a house move on the horizon, but there has been a hiccup in the process and I don't know when we will move. I have no idea what will happen or when, and it feels, on the surface, a little "un-Christmassy".

As I contemplated this uncertainty, I thought about what being unprepared for Christmas means theologically. I have spoken so many times about stripping Christmas down to the true meaning of the season. Traditionally, the decorations would not go up until Christmas Eve, as the world welcomes Christ; the light of the world into the darkness and it is that light which is sewn into the season – not a tiny single light amongst thousands of twinkling lights that we can turn off with the press of a switch, but a light which begins with the birth of a small child in lowly circumstances, amidst the agonized screams of a teenaged girl, as animals press in on the scene and weather-worn field labourers drop by to visit.

Over the course of 2,000 years that light has grown in the hearts of millions of people, from the most earnestly devout to those who simply get caught up in the excitement of this era known as "The Season".

I wonder, was this the plan? The first Christmas seemed chaotic – no room available, no baby clothes ready washed and folded, no family on hand, no decorations, no gifts, no feast prepared, just two young people, waiting to greet the Son of God, and yet, despite their apparent unpreparedness, it was perfect; everyone played their part; everything came to pass as God had declared.

Our Christmas, or indeed our futures, may seem uncertain, yet God will ensure that it is perfect, whatever or however we celebrate. We may encounter another mouth to feed, or a screaming teenager, the great unwashed may knock on the door; visitors you had not planned to see. It seems that no matter how organized our Christmases may be, the only way to experience the season is with a certain amount of resignation to the uncertainty, the unexpected, the disruption of Jesus Christ in our lives.

As Mottram Church faces another interregnum, another winter without heating and much uncertainty, I ask you to face it with the certainty that this will not be the last time that Jesus disrupts the life of the church. It will not be the last time you may feel uncertain or even uncomfortable in your pursuit of drawing closer to your God. The church is a living, breathing body. Bodies are unpredictable, they often do things which make us uncomfortable, sometimes embarrassing, or noisy and sometimes downright irritating, but they are beautifully and lovingly created by God. They are perfect in His eyes.

So, I want to wish you, from the bottom of my heart a very messy, unpredictable and perfect Christmas.

With love,
Cait, Elijah and Reuben

We don't always get the answer we expect or want, but it's always good to share with God.

Loving Jesus,

You were born in a stable but worshipped by angels. Be with all who are lonely, and with all who feel distant from celebrations. Be for us a living hope that lightens their hearts.

Christmas Greetings

Christmas cards have a history which may surprise you: their origins are not of the Church, but of the Post Office and railways.

Of course 'Christmas Greetings' had been around for hundreds of years in private letters. The earliest such letter on record was written in England in 1534.

In 1611 a HUGE Christmas card made a one-off appearance.

It measured a whopping 33" by 24", and was given to King James I of England (King James VI of Scotland). It featured a rose, four poems, a song, and a Christmas message for the king and his son.

1843 saw the creation of Christmas cards as we know them. One enterprising man was responsible for this; Sir Henry Cole, a civil servant who had helped launch the 'Public Record Office', now the Post Office.

Sir Henry Cole helped to introduce the Penny Post. Until then, only the rich could afford the Post, but with the arrival of the railways, which carried far more packages than horses and carts (and went much faster), suddenly the Penny Post became possible.

Sir Henry wanted to encourage 'ordinary' people to use the new service. He came up with the bright idea of a creating a simple card that people could send each other for Christmas. His friend, John Horsley, an artist, designed a three-panel card. Two panels depicted people caring for the poor, the middle one showed a family Christmas dinner.

They printed about 1,000 cards that first year, and advertised under the slogan: 'Just published, a Christmas Congratulations Card, or picture emblematical of old English festivity to perpetuate kind recollections between dear friends!'

The cards sold for one shilling each and could be posted to friends and family for a penny. There was a warm response from the public.

By the early 1900s, the custom had spread across Europe.

The first cards usually included a Nativity, and in late Victorian times, robins and snow-scenes. Robins were chosen because the postmen were nick-named 'Robin Postmen', because of their red uniforms.

Mottram Primary School News

Joshua Timperley from Mottram School has been crowned a winner in a nationwide lorry design competition, run by Aldi as part of its ongoing partnerships with Team GB and ParalympicsGB.

The supermarket chain asked young people across the country to hand draw a design for its next lorry, and Joshua, aged 10, was the England winner.

The designs had to inspire others to enjoy healthy sustainable food. Joshua's design focused on the fruit and vegetables sold by Aldi, and how eating healthily can make us feel better.

The judges, including Olympic weightlifter silver medallist Emily Campbell, were very impressed by Joshua's creation, which will now be seen on an Aldi lorry.

Joshua's teaching assistant and Eco team leader, Michelle Craik, says:

"Josh was over the moon and Emily's appearance was a brilliant start to the day. Her talk inspired a discussion on the children's aspirations and the dedication needed to realise their dreams."

We will be asking the children to help choose how we spend the £1,000 prize money. The Eco Team hope for plants or fruit trees for the allotment. They have begun to harvest fruits and vegetables, so it would be ideal to build on this."

Josh has decided to allocate £20 of his own £100 prize voucher to buying fun things for his friends."

Later in the year, with Josh's teacher, Nicole Brocklehurst, we will be looking at healthy eating and the importance of a balanced diet."

Safeguarding Update

At Mottram Church we take safeguarding very seriously. Safeguarding is about preventing harm, protecting those at risk of harm and promoting wellbeing in every person. Everyone who is involved in leading or organising church activities and events has to act in ways which will do this. That is laid out in our Parish Safeguarding Policy, approved by the Parish Church Council. In October, the PCC approved an updated policy and guidance, which can be found on the church website here: <https://d3hgrrlq6yacptf.cloudfront.net/5f3febd9cd869/content/pages/documents/policycomplete2023.pdf>

If you have any concerns about safeguarding, either as it relates to yourself or to other people in the church community, you can report these securely at safemottram@gmail.com or by talking to the parish Safeguarding Lead, Claire Bibby (01457 763758). There is more safeguarding information on the board at the back of church, including where to go if you don't want to talk directly to someone involved in our church community.

Our weekly 'Drop in' Afternoon At Mottram Community Centre Every Wednesday 2 - 4.30pm.

Could you spare just one afternoon a month to help serve tea and cake and welcome visitors? If you can, please sign up on the list at the back of church.

Do you know someone who might appreciate a couple of hours with a hot drink, some simple food and friendly company in a warm building during the cold winter months? Let them know, or bring them along.

Quote of the month

Christ became what we are
that He might make us what He is.

Christmas Fair

Thank you to everyone who baked, brewed up, donated, lugged stuff around, manned the stalls, purchased from them, ran raffles, cleared up and supported in any way whatsoever The Christmas Fair.

It was a great success and raised over £1,000 for Church funds and charities, so especial thanks go to Dorothy Stringer and Sandra Gateley for organising it.

ANOTHER NOTICE

Teenager Leila McClure from Dukinfield is swimming the equivalent of 5 marathons AND cycling 73 miles to raise funds for Willow Wood Hospice in memory of her grandmother, Mary McClure. Mary passed away peacefully in the Hospice on 5th May 2003.

Leila's family have been supporting the Hospice since Leila was 2 years old. Now she is 13 and can choose how to support the Hospice herself, Leila has taken on this huge challenge, which she intends to finish by 5th May 2024.

Leila, who goes to All Saints Catholic College, said: "Unfortunately, I never met my grandma as she died before I was born, however I have been told what an amazing person she was and how well she was cared for in our Hospice.

"This year is the 20th anniversary of her passing. To mark the 20 years, I wanted to do something significant to recognise her and raise some money along the way. I plan to combine two passions of mine – cycling and swimming.

"As she would have been 73 on New Year's Eve and died on the 5th day of the 5th month of the year, I am doing a 73-mile bike ride and swimming the equivalent of 5 marathons.

"The swimming will be the most difficult challenge as that equates to 131 miles, but I am determined to do it and raise much-needed funds for a great cause that is very important to the local community."

Church News - (1)

Sunday 26 November was Rev. Cait's last service with St Michael's before she leaves for her new post as Chaplain at Oldham Royal Hospital.

Churchwarden Kevin Hall presented her with a gift from the congregation in gratitude for her ministry which has been much valued.

Soon after joining us Rev Cait ran the Manchester Marathon to raise funds for the church.

Here she is with her medal —→

May God bless Cait, Eli and Reuben.

At the same service Rev. Cait presented Tony Kershaw with a gift in acknowledgement of the huge amount of work he has done regarding the new environmentally-friendly heating system, the bell-frame, the website, the E-news and much more.

Tony says:

"I'm writing to thank you for the generous gift that Cait presented to me on Sunday morning. It was a total surprise, and left me speechless.

As Chris and I settle now into our sabbatical – we'll be back in the new year – I'd like to say a special thank you to all those who have given me messages of support in recent weeks. I'm particularly grateful to Bob, Kevin, Mick and Charmian, who have made special efforts to take on much of the load from my shoulders.

We pray that the new year may bring a period of stability and unity to the church, as we seek to serve God's Kingdom in this place."
